

I believe that the act should continue to be enforced as is. We receive more than enough junk mail/solicitation thru the mail system and should have the choice to not be bothered by telephone solicitation during quiet/family time at our homes!